

Peter Spalton is...

THE DATING DOCTOR

Need a Speaker for a Single-Sex or Mixed-Sex Event?

Peter Spalton is a well-respected expert in the field of human interaction and non-verbal communications. A sales and marketing professional for many years, he combines the skills of selling with the science of body language and psychology of seduction.

He specialises in the social skills and body language associated with flirting, dating, selling, negotiating, networking and building relationships with customers and colleagues.

He speaks at events and runs workshops around the UK. He has extensive public speaking, radio and media experience.

CREDENTIALS

Peter does 40 to 50 speaking engagements around the country every year. The press call him a "Body Boffin" and he frequently gives advice to newspapers and lifestyle magazines.

He's on the radio three or four times a month and has featured live on many UK television channels including Sky News, BBC, and ITV as well as numerous BBC and commercial radio stations around the country. He also advises film directors and actors on appropriate body language.

Peter is a member of the Professional Speakers Association and is active in International Training in Communications - a non-profit organisation dedicated to helping people improve their public speaking skills.

SPEAKING TOPICS

In the corporate environment Peter concentrates on speaking about the verbal and non-verbal aspects of selling, negotiating and dealing with colleagues at work. As the Dating Doctor he speaks on 'dating' skills including flirting, small talk and seduction.

A confident and engaging speaker, Peter comes across as enthusiastic, entertaining and provocative. He uses anecdotes to great effect and loves the cut and thrust of live broadcasting, 'phone-ins' and studio debates. His TV, radio and public speaking appearances are spontaneous and thought provoking - but never boring!

BACKGROUND

Peter has worked in sales and marketing for 26 years and has held senior positions in ICL, Ericsson and Nokia. He first started public speaking in the 1980s and has spoken in front of 1,000 people in the Wembley Conference Centre. He left Nokia in 1989 to work as a freelance sales and marketing consultant.

In this capacity he advises companies on how to sell and market their products and services. He also works as a personal communication coach and acts as a body language advisor to the negotiators and professional advisers involved in Mergers and Acquisitions.

In 2003 he diversified and created The Dating Doctor brand to help people develop their flirting, dating and social skills.
